Report: Gangadharpur Mahavidyamandir in collaboration with the Department of History and the Internal Quality Assessment Cell (IQAC) of Gangadharpur Mahavidyamandir, Howrah had organized an webinar on 24th of August, 2022 for the departmental students. The speaker was Ashim Biswas, Assistant Professor in History, Subarnarekha Mahavidyalaya, Gopiballavpur, Jhargram. His talk was on the origin and development of a Bengal based Vaishabite sect called the Anusari, which he discussed especially in the context of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century. Although the thrust area of his lecture was religious history of the nineteenth and twentieth century Bengal, he began his lecture with the emergence of Vaishnavism since the fifteenth and sixteenth century onwards to give an outline of the historical continuity. He reminded the students of the fact that the religious history of Bengal had largely been dominated by the Anusari sect since the early nineteenth century onwards. While focusing on the twentieth century, he emphasized particularly on the role of sports in the wake of nationalist discourse in twentieth century India. The lecture was inaugurated by the speech of the honorable teacher-in-charge, Dr. Debes Kr. Acharya, and ended with the vote of thanks by the head of the department. The students had actively participated in this academic programme.
