

✍ The mission of a nature club is to educate people about environmental issues and inspire them to take action to protect the environment. ②

Goals

- Raise awareness: Educate people about environmental issues and the importance of environmental conservation ②
- Develop commitment: Encourage people to develop a commitment to the environment and environmental cleanliness ②
- Develop leadership: Help people develop leadership qualities through group activities ②
- Organize activities: Plan and execute activities to reduce pollution, plant trees, and preserve natural resources ②
- Promote environmental literacy: Increase eco-consciousness and promote environmental literacy ②

Missions

- Raise awareness: Students learn about environmental issues and how to address them ②
- Promote conservation: Students learn about the importance of environmental conservation and how to protect the environment ②
- Develop leadership: Students develop leadership skills through group activities ②
- Develop organizing capacity: Students learn how to plan and execute environmental programs ②

Activities

- Planting trees: Students plant trees to promote environmental conservation ②
- Environmental education: Students learn about environmental issues through seminars, presentations, and exhibitions ②
- Environmental cleanliness: Students participate in activities to keep the environment clean ②
- Paper bag competitions: Students compete to make paper bags out of recycled materials to reduce plastic
- Kitchen gardening: Students learn how to grow vegetables in their kitchens ②
- Field trips: Students visit places to learn about the environment ②