

Electoral Literacy Club

GANGADHARPUR MAHAVIDYAMANDIR

P.O.-Gangadharpur, Dist.- Howrah, Pin- 711302

President/Coordinator

Phone: 033-2679 0052

Ref. No-

Date: 27/01/2023

Report on Creating Awareness Among Girl Students of P.N. Mannan Institution

Introduction:

On 27th January 2023, the Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) in collaboration with the Alumni Association of Gangadharpur Mahavidyamandir organized an awareness program aimed at empowering and educating the girl students of P.N. Mannan Institution about electoral literacy and the importance of active participation in the democratic process.

Objectives:

The primary objectives of the program were:

1. To raise awareness among girl students about the significance of voting and active participation in elections.
2. To educate them about their rights and responsibilities as citizens.
3. To inspire confidence in them to engage with the democratic process.

Program Details

A. Date and Venue:

The program was held on 27/01/2023 at the P.N. Mannan Institution campus. The event was attended by students, faculty members, and representatives from the Alumni Association of Gangadharpur Mahavidyamandir.

B. Participants:

The target audience for this program was the girl students of P.N. Mannan Institution. Over 38 girls' students attended the event, along with faculty members and volunteers from the ELC and the Alumni Association.

C. Speakers and Sessions:

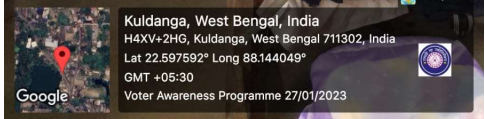

The program featured several prominent speakers who addressed the students on various aspects of electoral literacy. These included:

Smt Nivedita Chatterjee, HoD Pol Sc. and Coordinator of ELC: Delivered a keynote speech on the importance of voting and how every vote counts in shaping the future of the nation.

Sri Abhijit Das, Secretary of Alumni Association: Conducted an interactive session on the rights and responsibilities of citizens, focusing on the importance of being informed and making educated choices during elections.

One Member of ELC: Provided practical information on the voting process, including how to register as a voter, understanding the electoral rolls, and the role of the Election Commission of India.

D. Interactive Activities:

To make the session engaging, several interactive activities were conducted:

1. Quiz on Electoral Literacy: A quiz competition was held to test the students' knowledge about the electoral process and the importance of voting.

2. Role Play: Students participated in a role play activity that simulated an election process, helping them understand how elections are conducted and the roles of various stakeholders.

3. Poster Making Competition: A poster-making competition on the theme "My Vote, My Voice" encouraged students to express their understanding of electoral participation creatively.

E. Collaboration with Alumni Association

The Alumni Association of Gangadharpur Mahavidyamandir played a crucial role in the success of this event. The alumni members:

1. Provided mentorship and shared their experiences with the students, emphasizing the importance of being an informed voter.

2. Assisted in organizing the event and ensuring active participation from the students.

3. Contributed resources and materials for the interactive activities, ensuring that the program was both informative and enjoyable for the participants.

F. Impact and Feedback

The program was well-received by the Girls' students and faculty of P.N.Manna Institution. Feedback collected from the participants indicated that:

1. Increased Awareness: Many students reported a heightened awareness of the importance of voting and expressed their eagerness to participate in future elections.
2. Empowerment: The program helped in building confidence among the girl students, empowering them to take an active role in the democratic process.
3. Positive Engagement: The interactive activities were particularly appreciated, as they made the learning experience both fun and educational.

Conclusion

The collaboration between the Electoral Literacy Club and the Alumni Association of Gangadharpur Mahavidyamandir was instrumental in successfully creating awareness among the girl students of P.N. Mannan Institution. This initiative not only educated the students about the electoral process but also inspired them to be proactive and responsible citizens. The program stands as a testament to the importance of such collaborations in fostering a more informed and engaged electorate.

Future plans include organizing similar events on a larger scale and extending the program to other institutions to reach a wider audience.

