Application Invited for Hostel Facility for Minority Girls Students

I am pleased to announce the availability of hostel facilities exclusively for minority girls students at our college. As part of our commitment to fostering inclusivity and providing equal opportunities, we invite all minority girls students of our college to apply for accommodation in our hostel.

The hostel offers a safe and conducive environment for academic growth, personal development, and community building. By residing in the hostel, you will have access to various amenities and support services aimed at ensuring your well-being and success during your academic journey.

To avail of this opportunity, interested minority girls students are requested to submit their applications at the hostel office as early as possible. Please ensure that all necessary documents are attached to your application for timely processing.

For further inquiries or assistance regarding the hostel facility and the application process, please feel free to visit our hostel office/college office.
